Organizational Profile

The Lílwat Nation is a progressive First Nation whose traditional territory encompasses Whistler and Pemberton, BC. With a membership of over 2,200 people, approximately 1,650 of whom live in the community, the Lílwat Nation is the third largest First Nation in British Columbia. The Lílwat Nation is striving towards self-determination for, and by, its citizens by continuing to exert control over its Traditional Territory and resources. With economic development focused on land and resource management, the Lílwat Nation is building the economic foundation for a sustainable community by exploring opportunities in retail, forestry, agriculture, energy projects and construction.

About the Role

The Nurse Manager oversees the Community Health Nursing team to ensure that trauma-informed community health nursing services are provided to the standard of Provincial and Federal nursing standards of practice. The Nurse Manager provides hands-on clinical nursing services and backup support and vacation relief for Community Health Nurses (Registered Nurses and Licensed Practical Nurses).

This is an exciting and dynamic opportunity for a health care professional who is dedicated to supporting and providing nursing services to members of the Lílwat Nation community. The ideal candidate will hold a bachelors degree from a recognized university and currently practicing as a Registered Nurse (RN) with the British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM). The successful candidate will have a minimum of five (5) years of experience of nursing experience, or a combination of education and experience, with a minimum of one (1) year in a management role.

This position requires a clear Criminal Record Check required to work with a vulnerable sector, as well as a Driver's License and clear drivers abstract. This is an on-site position; the candidate must be willing to work in person, on location.

The salary range for this position is $85,685.60 - $117,280.80, supplement by a comprehensive total compensation plan including Vacation; Wellness Days; Sick Days; Statutory Holidays (plus Christmas holiday) as well as Pension Plan; Local Mileage Allowance; and Cell Phone Allowance.
